Painted Porch Strategies

A CHANGE ROADMAP PLANNER

YOUR P.A.T.H.™ TO EPIC SHIFT

Change is a journey, not a destination. Ten stops, ten honest questions, and a checklist to keep your route in view.

© PAINTED PORCH STRATEGIES, LLC

BEFORE YOU BEGIN

Most change doesn't fail at the finish line. It fails on the road.

We treat change as a destination: a go-live date, a launch, an announcement. Then the date passes and people drift back to the way things were. The P.A.T.H.™ treats change as a journey you prepare for, travel together, and keep traveling.

UNPLANNED CHANGE

We think on our toes, pivot around traffic, and adjust when the unexpected shows up.

INTENTIONAL CHANGE

We get overwhelmed, resist, hold on to familiar habits, and worry about getting it wrong.

“People don’t resist change; they resist being changed.”

PETER SENGE

Use the next two pages to capture first thoughts, one question per stop. "I don't know" counts as an answer. Then use the checklist on page 5 to plan your route.

When people here hear the word “change,” what words come to mind?

PREPARE

1 Define Your Destination

When we arrive, what will be true that isn't true today?

2 Pin Your Starting Point

What are our PROs to keep, GROWs to improve, and NOs to let go?

ALIGN

3 Assemble Your Change Coalition

Who do people go to when they want the real story?

4 Plan Your Route

What needs to happen before people feel the change — and long after?

5 Plot Your Checkpoints, Milestones, and Celebrations

How will we know it's working — beyond "on time and on budget"?

6 Identify Bumps, Roadblocks & Detours

Imagine it's a year from now and this change failed. What went wrong?

TAKE OFF

7 Take Your Change on the Road

How will people hear about this — and how will we hear from them?

8 Map Your Future Journey

Picture a normal Tuesday after the change. What does the work look like?

9 Provide GPS & Roadside Assistance

When someone gets stuck, where do they go?

CREATE A HABIT

10 Reinforce Change & Continual ShIFt

Who keeps this alive once the project team moves on?

Readiness gut check

Circle one: 1 = we haven't started · 5 = we could explain it to anyone

Prepare — one clear picture of where we're going	1	2	3	4	5
Align — the right people are on the route with us	1	2	3	4	5
Take Off — people are engaged and supported	1	2	3	4	5
Create a Habit — change outlives the project	1	2	3	4	5

ROADMAP PLANNING CHECKLIST

THE P.A.T.H.™ TO EPIC SHIFT

Check off each stop as your route takes shape.

PREPARE

- [ ] 1. Define Your Destination
  Gain clarity on strategic goals, objectives, impacts, and opportunities to ensure directional alignment across the organization.
- [ ] 2. Pin Your Starting Point
  Assess your organization's readiness and gain clarity on current-state operations and business processes.

ALIGN

- [ ] 3. Assemble Your Change Coalition
  Identify, train, coach, and prepare Change Leaders and Ambassadors to lead awareness and engagement across the organization.
- [ ] 4. Plan Your Route
  Create a roadmap for consistent, measurable, meaningful change activities before, throughout, and after your change project.
- [ ] 5. Plot Your Checkpoints, Milestones & Celebrations
  Identify measures of success and milestone checkpoints for regular inspection and adaptation of tasks, resources, and timelines.
- [ ] 6. Identify Bumps, Roadblocks & Detours
  Pre-plan for obstacles, pivots, and re-routes to reduce delays and short-term, reactive solutions.

TAKE OFF

- [ ] 7. Take Your Change on the Road
  Begin executing your change communication strategy with two-way channels, open feedback loops, and learning opportunities.
- [ ] 8. Map Your Future Journey
  Design, validate, configure, test, and verify future-state operational processes and technology (if applicable).
- [ ] 9. Provide GPS & Roadside Assistance
  Deliver continual training and education for comprehension, proficiency, and adoption.

CREATE A HABIT

- [ ] 10. Reinforce Change & Continual ShIFt
  Make change stick with a reinforcement strategy and center of excellence for Continuous And Never-ending Innovation.

WHERE THE ROAD GOES FROM HERE

You've found the questions. That's the hardest part.

Think of this as the first draft of your change TripTik. The blank lines show you where your journey needs the most attention — and where it's worth slowing down before you speed up.

"Things do not change; we change." — HENRY DAVID THOREAU

My one next stop:

Pull up a chair on the porch

Bring your blank lines. We'd love to explore what you found and what it might mean for the road ahead.

Start the conversation at onthepaintedporch.com

Painted Porch Strategies

© PAINTED PORCH STRATEGIES, LLC